What They Say

Two Heart-full Letters

Two Heart-full Letters

They speak volumes for flower gardens.

Thave loved ones in the service and in the war industries. From overwrought nerves I find courage and relief in working among my flowers. I love them more dearly than ever, "—Mrs. E. J. K.

"A loved one has been 'missing in action' for fifteen months. Our garden is a great consolution to my husband and myself during this amous time."—Mrs. A. L. R.

"Mr. Katkamier: In memory of our soldier boy who will never come back, I am building a garden park for him, centered with a cement shaft on which there will be a flag by day and a light by night. I want flowers to bloom around the shaft during spring, summer and fall and look to you for the plants."—J. W. T.

TRUE WATER IRIS
seudacorus—Is the bright, golden yellow Iris that will grow in water. Its leaves are tall, graceful and very ornamental.

Other varieties which will beautify moist locations tates, marshes, glome it.

Five Peony Plants, $1

Each a different color. Some will bloom early and some will bloom ate. My selection. Worthy of your consideration.

The Iris can be transplanted any time the ground is not actually frozen. It is the most accommodating of all flowering plants. While it appreciates good care and good soil it will grow anywhere, under any conditions and give a good account of itself. All plants are sent postpaid direct to your mail box.
